" Church proved by its own decisions.—I de-
" termine that I am infallible; therefore I am
" infallible."

This Day is published, in One Volume, Price 3s.

An APOLOGY for Professing the Religion of Nature, in the Eighteenth Century of the Christian Æra. Addressed to Dr. WATSON, Bishop of Landaff: And a Liturgy on the Principles of Theism.

The Manuscript of this Publication was conveyed to the Publisher from the Continent, and with extraordinary Precautions. The Contents startled him; but on mature Consideration and Advice, it appeared to be written with so much Vigour of Genius, Extent of Information, and disinterested Love of Truth, that he thought it would be dastardly and criminal not to avail himself of the utmost Liberty of the English Press in Favour of such a Production.
